

Supply Center presents the PCR workflow

A PCR event not to be missed

Please join us for a special event, "Supply Center presents the PCR workflow," at Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. Meet your representative, enjoy food and refreshments, check out the Applied Biosystems™ SimpliAmp™ Thermal Cycler, and don't miss your chance to test a sample of our new Invitrogen™ SuperScript™ IV Reverse Transcriptases or Invitrogen™ Platinum™ Hot Start PCR 2X Master Mixes. Limited quantities of samples available.

Thursday, October 8, 2015

Time: 9:30 a.m.–11:00 a.m.

Location: Weintraub Building, B1-072
